

COOKIES POLICY

This Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how they are used by Southern European Cluster in Photonics and Optics ("secpho") on its website <https://www.secpho.org/> (hereinafter, the "Web Site") and how it can be managed by the user.

1. WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is any type of data storage and retrieval device used on a user's terminal equipment for the purpose of storing information and retrieving information already stored. Thus, cookies are small data files that are hosted on the user's computer and that contain certain information about the user's visit to the Web Site. The cookie is downloaded by the device you use to access the Web Site and stored on that device's hard drive. In this Cookie Policy we use the word cookie to refer to all files that store information in this way.

Cookies have various utilities, including allowing the Web Site to recognize your device when you visit us again, ensure that you receive the correct content, or store information with preferences or services that you have provided to us. Cookies do not damage the user's device.

2. WHAT TYPE OF COOKIES DO WE USE?

Cookies can be differentiated taking into account the purpose for which they are used, their duration or who manages them. It is important to note that the same cookie may belong to different categories. Below is a description of the cookies used on the Web Site:

A) Depending on the purpose of cookies

Technical cookies

Technical cookies are those that allow you to browse through the Website and use the different options or services that it offers. Our Website uses technical cookies, some of which are essential for the operation of Sitio Web, such as cookies that allow us to identify users so that they can enter their private access or keep the session with the server. If you choose not to enable these cookies, browsing the Website may not be possible or much less satisfactory because there is content you cannot see or features that you cannot use.

Analysis and statistics cookies

Analysis cookies allow us to obtain generic information about your access to the Website in order to provide us with aggregated information about them for statistical purposes.

These types of cookies are used to analyze how users browse the Website and monitor the performance of the Website. In addition, the tools used to obtain statistics on the use of the Website offer the possibility of obtaining an ever higher level of detail about the behavior of visitors and users of the Sitio Web. This data may be collected, processed and retained associated with an IP address or a particular user or subjected to a dissociation process in order to obtain conclusions based on anonymous data.

The information collected through cookies may include, among other data, the IP address that identifies the computer at that time, the date and time of access and the areas of the Website that are visited. The purpose of this data collection is to monitor the use and usefulness of our Website, for statistical and security purposes

B) Depending on the entity that manages them

Own cookies

These are cookies sent to your terminal from a secpho managed computer or domain and from which the requested service is provided.

Third-party cookies

These cookies are sent to s or terminal from a computer or domain that is not managed by secpho, but by another entity that processes the data obtained through cookies.

C) Depending on the activation time

Session cookies

They are cookies designed to collect and store data while the user accesses the Website.

Persistent cookies

They are cookies in which the data are still stored in the user's terminal and can be accessed and processed for a period defined by the person responsible for the cookie, and that can range from a few minutes to several years.

3. WHAT COOKIES CAN YOU FIND ON OUR WEBSITE?

At secpho we use the following technical own cookies (allowsession variables to be stored on the website server) and third parties, specifically Facebook for marketing and tracking purposes (tracking visits on different websites) and Google Analytics, in order to analyze your browsing of the Website and obtain statistics (calculation of date and time of purchase, duration of the visit to the Website, number of services requested, search word and search engine used to reach the Website):

Cookie	Holder	Duration
--------	--------	----------

_fbp	Facebook Inc.	3 months
_utma	Google Analytics	Persistent until deleted by the user
_utmb	Google Analytics	Expires at the end of the session
_utmc	Google Analytics	30 minutes
_utmt	Google Analytics	10 minutes
_utmz	Google Analytics	6 months
